VIENNA, AUGUST 12.

THE Ruſſian armies commanded by Prince Gallitzin and General Romanzow having joined again, on the 18*th of July attacked the great Ottoman army near Taſſi. The firſt onſet was made with great vigour, but the Turks defended themſelves ſo bravely, that their enemies were obliged to retire with conſiderable loſs. The Ottoman cavalry is ſaid to be gone in purſuit of the Ruſſians.*

HAGUE, Auguſt 29. Laſt Friday Sir Joſeph Yorke, ambaſſador from Great-Britain to the United Provinces, had a conference with the ſtates-general, when he delivered a memorial to their high mightineſſes, in which he laid claim to an eſtate at Surinam, in favour of ſome Engliſh, requeſting their high mightineſſes to do juſtice to the claimants. Their high mightineſſes, in anſwer, promiſed that they would have the affair properly enquired into, and if the pretenſions of the Engliſh were well grounded, they ſhould have the relief they were entitled to.

WARSAW, Auguſt 16. The ſiege of Choczim is changed into a blockade. To relieve that fortreſs the Grand Vizir has detached two bodies, one of 40, and the other of 30,000 men. The Vizir did not judge it proper to wait the arrival of the Ruſſian troops commanded by the generals Stoffeln, Bruce and Proſorowſki. The Ruſſians were repulſed by the garriſon for the firſt time, on the 29*th of July, and again on the ſecond of this month. In the mean time a thouſand ſpahis being oppoſed by fifteen ſquadrons of cuiraſſiers, were repulſed, and obliged to retire into the place. At the departure of the poſt it was rumoured that Choczim had opened its gates to the Ruſſians, and the garriſon with Potocki and a number of the confederates made priſoners of war.*

WARSAW, Auguſt 17. Letters from Kaiminieck, of the 5*th, informs us, that the fortreſs of Choczim was then ſtill blocked up, and that the fire of the artillery on both ſides were not ſo briſk as it had been. The beſieged, we are aſſured, will ſoon be in want of ſubſiſtance. The Grand Vizir, in order to interrupt the operations of the ſiege, had detached a corps of* 50,000 men, who have been put to flight by the generals count de Stoffeln and prince Proſorowſki. The Turks, to the number of 2000, at the ſame time made a ſally from Choczim, but they were ſoon obliged to re-enter the place.——P. S. This moment at the departure of the poſt, a report prevails that Choczim ſurrendered to the Ruſſians by capitulation on the ninth of this month; the confirmation of which is impatiently expected.

PARIS, Auguſt 25. A letter from Chandenagore, dated January 16, 1769, ſays, "Our neighbours the Engliſh have been ſoundly drubbed by a certain Andernack, who, after ſeven days fighting, killed between five and ſix hundred whites (a conſiderable loſs in that country) and at leaſt four thouſand blacks. They are in the utmoſt conſternation; but at the ſame time, it is true, we are never the better; for by their craft in Nabob-making, they have extremely cramped our commerce; yet this is in a great meaſure owing to the wrong ſteps of adminiſtration at home."

A letter from Breſt confirms what was advanced in the letter from L'Orient, concerning the horrid project of the pretended Lord Gordon; and adds, that the proof is eſtabliſhed by his own papers which have been ſeized. Informations are ſecretly taken for his trial, as well as for thoſe of ſeveral ſailors, and others, in confederacy with him, who are daily apprehended in different parts of the kingdom. The parliament of Bourdeaux has written a letter to the king, to deſire that the magiſtrates of the ſovereign council of Port-au-Prince may be tried by a parliament, and not by a commiſſion, a tribunal derogatory to our laws.

HAGUE, September 1. In conſequence of an old convention made between Spain and this republic, the ſhips of the former power bound to the Philippine iſlands, are obliged to keep at a certain diſtance from the Cape of Good Hope, and not to caſt anchor there on any pretence whatſoever. But within theſe two years paſt the Spaniards have not ſo ſcrupulouſly obſerved this convention, and not long ſince, ſome of their ſhips, under pretence of being driven in there, not only diſcovered at the Cape of Good Hope, but alſo attempted to ſell their goods there. The States-General have ſent orders to their miniſter at Madrid to make remonſtrances upon this infraction of the treaty, and deſire that a ſtop may be put to ſuch proceedings for the future; and at the ſame time have delivered a memorial to the Marquis del Puente Fuerte, the Spaniſh miniſter here, deſiring him to ſupport, by his good offices, the remonſtrances which the Dutch miniſter is ordered to make to his court upon this ſubject.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 17. This day great rejoicings were made on account of the victory gained over the enemy by Abdalha, a Pacha of Two Tails, who has penetrated into Poland by the way of Balta, and cut to pieces 3000 Coſſacks, in the Palatinate of Braclaw; he has taken above 700 priſoners, and carried away above 60,000 horſes, oxen, and ſheep.

WARSAW, Auguſt 17. The few letters which we receive from the provinces are filled with the moſt ſhocking accounts of the diſorders which prevail in thoſe parts. Numerous bands of vagabonds aſſume to themſelves the name of Confederates, and commit ſuch a number of robberies and murders, that this unhappy country is likely to become a deſert overflown w[illegible] bright of anarchy [illegible] Zim, not being able the Turks have ben[illegible] mountain where th[illegible] Vizir, whoſe arm[illegible] not immediately ma[illegible]

The next ſeſſio[illegible] parliament is likely to prove extremely critical. The agitation of [illegible] the province; the circumſtances of the American affairs; the conſ[illegible]dation of the E. SEPTEMBER 5. Capt. de Ranzane is appointed to the Rank of Major of Foot in America.

Extract of a letter from Charles-Town, South-Carolina, dated July 11, 1769.

"From a ſpot of hurry and buſtle, I ſhall ſoon leave Stile to de[illegible] The people of this province have been expreſſing their grievances would be redreſſed, by a repeal of the unconſtitutional revenue acts; but we find you are determined to oppreſs us, and therefore we have now reſolved to adopt ſuch meaſures as we think the moſt likely to procure us relief. I ſigned, with above one hundred of my brother merchants, to certain reſolutions yeſterday, the chief of which are, Not to import any more Britiſh goods, or manufactures, except ſuch as we cannot poſſibly do without; to encourage manufactures in North-America; to live in our families with the Britiſh women; to import no more negroes, &c. Theſe agreements are to be ſolemnly adhered to, unleſs the acts complained of are repealed. I fear a large order for goods to come out the next fall, but have countermanded them. I think you muſt approve of the meaſures we have entered into; as, from to them, we look every prudent ſtep an oppreſſed people could, but without effect.

We are informed, that a certain patriotic ſociety will ſhortly appoint a committee, to determine whether or no they can, with propriety, admit Mr. Vaughan of the next general meeting.

Thurſday the Chineſe gentleman, lately arrived in this city, paid a viſit to the right honourable the Earl of Rochford, ſecretary of ſtate, at his [illegible] Berkley-ſquare, where the company were highly pleaſed and ſurprized at his extream politeneſs and genteel behaviour.

Saturday diſpatches ſent to the [illegible] of great importance, were ſent from his excellency the Spaniſh ambaſſador prince Maſſerano's houſe in Great Ormond-ſtreet to the court of Madrid.

Count Solera, the Imperial ambaſſador reſiding at this court, has actually obtained his letters of recall, and ſets out for Germany on his return [illegible] ſome time this month. And count Cobenzel is nominated to ſucceed him.

Private letters from Hamburgh mention, that a treaty of a ſingular nature is ſaid to be on the carpet between the courts of Stockholm and Verſailles.

It is rumoured that a great trading company intend to apply to government to encourage a new ſettlement at Madagaſcar, in thoſe places which muſt certainly be abandoned by the French, on the diſſolution of their Eaſt-India company.

By letters from Paris we hear that the little ſucceſs of the arms of the Turks againſt the Ruſſians, the ruined ſtate of the Eaſt-India company, and the preventive meaſures taken in concert by the Engliſh company and miniſtry againſt any ſurprize, in conſequence of the forces collected at Mauritius and Iſle de Bourbon, have traverſed the political views of the French court, and occaſioned great perplexities in their councils. Had not the above enumerated events taken place, it cannot be doubted but that they would have made ſome extraordinary ſtroke in the Eaſt-Indies, where the naval equipment and land forces have been ſent and ſupported at a very great expence, which now appear to have been laviſhed in vain.

SEPTEMBER 6. We are informed that an extraordinary council will be called to conſider on the affairs of North-America, an account of which is to be laid before them by a certain perſon lately arrived from that part of the world.

Some who are in the ſecret of the cabinet ſay, that it is expected, if a certain gentleman convinceth the miniſtry, in a vindication of his governmental conduct, of the uprightneſs of it, he will have ſome diſtinguiſhed mark of approbation ſhewn him.

It is ſaid the agents of all our colonies on the weſtern continent have received ſtrict inſtructions to obſerve the conduct of certain perſons, ſo far as it relates to them, and to tranſmit an account of the ſame, with all poſſible diſpatch.

The Hawke frigate, Capt. Lloyd, on board which Sir John Lindſay ſails for India, will certainly leave the Downs this week, and proceed on her voyage with the utmoſt expedition, without touching any where but at Portſmouth.

The French have laid a heavy duty on all Engliſh goods imported at Corſica.

Yesterday his excellency Sir Francis Bernard, bart. who arrived in town on Monday from Boston in New-England, had a long conference with the earl of Weymouth and several other officers of state, and this day his excellency will be introduced to his Majesty.

Extract of a letter from Brescia in Italy, dated August 30.

"The day before yesterday a terrible accident happened here; a flash of lightning fell that day on the tower, where several thousand weights of gunpowder was deposited, which blew it up, with a horrible explosion. Eight soldiers and 37 other persons were instantly destroyed, and above 1800 persons buried under the ruins. About 300 were taken alive out of the rubbish, but all of them were or last wounded; the rest were found crushed to death. We cannot yet justly ascertain the loss occasioned by this melancholy accident; but on a general survey it cannot be less than 300,000 ducats Venetian money."

Bets are now laying, at the west end of the town, that Lord Bute will be first Lord of the Treasury before the sitting of parliament, and that a Great Personage will dissolve a certain house before the end of the last month in winter.

The Russian fleet of 14 sail of the line, commanded by vice-admiral Elphinston, (a Captain in the English royal navy) is now on its passage to the Mediterranean, and is to be joined by six Danish men of war, to attack Constantinople, and to try to give the Turks some diversion that way. A fleet of observation is fitting with great dispatch at Toulon; and Europe will soon see who kindled the war in Poland, and set the Russians and Turks together. It is thought that England cannot sit still, and see the only ally they have to depend on, interrupted in their just attacks on their enemies.

Monday great numbers of the nobility and gentry set out for Stratford upon Avon, to be present at the grand jubilee in commemoration of Shakespeare, which begins there this day. The gentlemen of the band of music engaged to perform there went to Stratford on Sunday last in ten coaches and four, six post-chaises, besides a great number on horseback.

Pursuant to an act of last session, they have begun at Portsmouth to erect a powder magazine two miles up the harbour, for the greater security of the inhabitants.

SEPTEMBER 8. Wednesday there was a General Court of Proprietors of East-India Stock, at their house in Leadenhall-street; to determine by ballot the following question:

"That this Court doth approve of the Alterations proposed by the Attorney-General, the Hon. Mr. Yorke, and Mr. Sayer, in the superintending Commission as now read, and that a new Commission be made out accordingly."

The balloting began about eleven o'clock in the morning, and ended at six in the evening, when an hour being taken up by the inspectors for adjusting and reporting the same, at seven it was declared in full Court (Sir George Colebrooke in the chair) to be as follows:

For the Question	226
Against it	144
Majority for the Question	82

As soon as the ballot was declared, the chairman was going to adjourn, when Mr. Maclean presented a paper signed by several Proprietors, dissenting from the legality of the ballot, and requesting the Directors would minute it on their books. Some of the Directors were of opinion, that they could not officially do so, which in consequence opened a debate.

Counsellor Jennings observed, 'That he had attended to many 'general meetings of the Proprietors of late; and that he thought 'in regard to serving the interests of the Company, they rather 'perplexed them, and that the business would go on much 'smoother without so many interruptions; he said the Directors 'had no right by charter to receive such a protest on their books; 'nor could it be precedented in any corporation subordinate to 'parliament.'

To this he was replied by Mr. Stewart, 'Who agreed that business would go on much smoother without so many General 'Courts; as so would the business of the Ministry without the 'interruption of Parliaments; but that he hoped as an English-'man, and a Proprietor of Stock, neither Government nor Di-'rection would ever be carried on without such assistances; that 'as to the charter's being silent on this head, so it was in many 'other respects, in regard to the practices of this Court, but 'where common sense spoke so loudly in favour of it, he was 'astonished how it should meet with the least interruption.'——He then quoted two precedents of a protest, almost in point, and concluded by observing how much better the business of this Court may be carried on, if Gentlemen attended more to the real interests of the Company, than the quirks of the law.

These debates continued with great warmth till near 10 o'clock at night, when at last it was proposed Mr. Maclean should read the protest from his place, as a speech; but that the circumstance of its being minuted, must remain for a further discussion. This was agreed to, and the protest was read, which consisted of nine articles; the principal of which were, "the inconsistency of the supersession of the Council of Bengal," and its being contrary to an Act of Parliament of George II. The Court then adjourned to yesterday.

And yesterday at eleven o'clock, the Proprietors met at Merchant Taylor's Hall, Threadneedle-street, accordingly.

After the clerk, as usual, read over the minutes of the last meeting of the General Court, Sir George Colebrooke, the chairman rose up, and observed, 'That as this was the third day that 'the Proprietors had met for the discussion of the latter point of 'Lord Weymouth's Letter, of granting powers to an Officer of Government in the deliberations of peace and war, and what those powers should be, he hoped that they would enter on the business with as much clearness and perspicuity as possible; by this 'time he observed, every Proprietor was very well acquainted 'with almost every thing that could be said on the subject, both 'for and against. Therefore he was led to wish, that they would 'meet one another with more unanimity than heretofore, and 'not cross the lines which would only retard and perplex busi-'ness.'

The question that lay on the table for discussion as amended, was "That an Officer of the Crown should have a share in the deliberations of war only;" but this being looked upon as not so proper to come to a conclusion, it was withdrawn by the proposer Mr. Creighton, to make room for any other that should be thought to expedite more fully an answer to Lord Weymouth's Letter.

Hence many gentlemen made proposals, which though seconded, were interrupted by others, who made fresh ones; so that many hours (notwithstanding coming to the point was so strongly recommended by the Chairman on the opening of the court) were thrown away.

At last Mr. Dempster made a proposal which seemed to be more generally attended to, which consisted of two parts, and was in substance as follows:

No. 1.—"That this court doth empower the superior Council 'in India to deliberate with the officer appointed by his Majesty 'in the operations of war, but that his instructions must come 'from them; and that he shall have no voice in the delibera-'tions of peace and war."

No. 2.—"That his Majesty's officer shall have a deliberative 'voice, both in peace and war, but that, on an equality, the 'officers of the company shall have a casting voice."

'The choice of one of these questions, Mr. Dempster said, 'would be giving a categorical answer to the Secretary of State's 'letter; and he begged that a previous question should be put, 'to know whether it was the sense of the Court that one of 'them should be chosen.'

The previous question being seconded, it was accordingly put, but on the holding up of hands, there seemed to be such an equality, that the Court thought it proper to divide: the result of the division we have not been acquainted with, but it was universally thought it would be the object of another day.

The speakers on both days were, Sir George Colebrooke, Bart. Sir James Hodges, Mr. Dempster, Mr. Salvador, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Maclean, Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Cust, Mr. Creighton, Mr. Chase, and Mr. Dalrymple.

It is said Sir Jeffery Amherst will be appointed commander in chief of all the forces in North-America, in the room of General Gage.

We are assured that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland will return to England in April next.

We hear, by a letter from Dublin, that the Right Honourable General Conway arrived there the 29th ult. in perfect health, after inspecting all the forts in Scotland and the North of Ireland; that he intends staying there a few days, and from thence embark for Wales, in his way to London.

Wednesday Mr. Allen, father to the young man who was shot some time ago in a cow-house in St. George's-fields, delivered a petition to his Majesty at St. James's.

SEPTEMBER 9. The affairs relating to the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, and also the Petitions preferred against their Governor, are postponed till the arrival of the Earl of Hillsborough from Ireland, who is expected in the course of next week.

Yesterday the Hon. Lord Villiers, now Earl of Jersey, resigned his place as Vice Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, and at the same time kissed his Majesty's hand on being appointed one of the Lords of the Bed Chamber to his Majesty.

We are credibly informed, that Lord Viscount Beauchamp, Member for Orford in Suffolk, and son of the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford, will be appointed Vice Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, in the room of the Earl of Jersey, who has resigned.

The Brussels Gazette, which arrived yesterday, contains an article from Paris, describing the conjectures of their Politicians upon the critical situation of the English affairs in the East-Indies, with an Insinuation that Hyder Ally has taken Madrass. This article concludes with an account of the life and character of that extraordinary Adventurer, which appears to be almost literally translated from some anecdotes printed here some months since in the Gentleman's Magazine, and copied from thence into most of the English papers.

It is asserted, that a great person in the law has been applied to, within these two days, for his opinion, respecting the attack made upon the character of a certain Nobleman by a Country Physician.

A person of quality, remarkable for his literary productions, observed in conversation, at the Cocoa-tree, a few mornings ago, that the people of England were always falling out of one fit of madness into another; that the passion for Mr. Wilkes had given place to the Shakespearomania; and that there was the greatest reason to suppose, as the celebrated Corsican is shortly expected in London, that distemper would submit to the Paolimania.

A Correspondent says, that a certain Physician is likely to gain as little credit by his story in relation to the peace, as a person commonly called the fighting Parson, did by his narrative of an extraordinary duel, and observes, that the people of England have not been very credulous with respect to sham plots, &c. since they were so egregiously imposed upon in the days of Charles the Second.

Lord Weymouth has sent a letter into the city, to acquaint the merchants, trading to Russia, that the Russians have dispatched a fleet of 20 ships of the line to Constantinople.—It is imagined the French will oppose this squadron.

It has been notified in form to the ministry by the Russian Ambassador, that the above fleet of ships are in these seas, on their way to the Mediterranean.

The two reigning toasts are—The patriotic Dr. Musgrave of Plymouth——And the independent Burgesses of the town of Bedford.

A correspondent desires to know; what truer touchstone the present M——y can have of the general disapprobation of their conduct, than the universal disrespect which every member of it is treated with wherever he goes.

SEPTEMBER 13. According to letters from Neiss, where the Emperor and the King of Prussia have just had an interview, those two Monarchs, commiserating the unhappy condition of Poland, have agreed together on certain efficacious arrangements for putting a stop to the troubles which desolate that kingdom.

The Emperor, we are told by the same letters, always gave the King of Prussia the right hand, saying, that he was the eldest General.

The American trade, which, at this season, used to be in a prosperous condition, is now in a most abject state; there is not, we hear, one ship yet cleared out at the Royal Exchange for New-York or Philadelphia; and for Boston and Carolina, there are only three for each province.

SEPTEMBER 16. The price of stocks in general have fell one per cent. within these few days, owing, it is said, to the expectancy of a war very shortly.

A correspondent from Jersey informs us, that there are great disturbances in that island, on account of the exportation of corn; but the particulars are of such a nature as cannot, with safety, be published.

By a letter from a great Personage himself, to a Nobleman of distinction at this court, we hear, that in consequence of a late meeting between the Emperor of Germany, and the King of Prussia, at Neiss, which lasted three days; the latter Monarch passes great encomiums on the former, and stiles him "his best friend."

It is reported that a certain Bench of J——s have denied licences to every publican who has John Wilkes, Esq; for his sign. A spirited person, who was a sufferer on this occasion, said in his own vindication on the above occasion, that he was no friend to John Wilkes or his cause, and therefore had hung him up in effigy, to shew his real principles; but if he had undesignedly given them any offence, he was ready to pull down John Wilkes, and hang up the whole Bench in his stead.

Yesterday Lord Charles Greville Montagu, lately arrived from his government of South-Carolina, was introduced to his Majesty at St. James's.

SEPTEMBER 20. General Paoli is arrived; he was seen on Tuesday near Colchester, and travelled in a very private manner. It is supposed he is gone to the house of a certain gentleman, who has, upon all occasions, shewn himself one of the warmest friends to the liberties of Corsica, with whom, it is said, he will stay some time before he makes his public appearance.

It is asserted, that one person at Bedford lately refused a bribe of three hundred pounds, at a time he had not three shillings to buy himself and family a dinner.

A petition, full of heavy complaints against a certain person, was delivered last Thursday to his Majesty, by Dennis De Berdt, Esquire, agent for the House of Representatives of the Massachusetts-Bay.

Extract of a letter from Rochester, September 18.

"This being the day for the election of mayor of this city, the freemen assembled in the town-hall, and made choice of Mr. Alderman Manclark; he was chosen by a very great majority, in direct opposition to those who had in their eye a certain person, no enemy to the present ministry."

PROVIDENCE, (Rhode-Island) October 21.

At a Meeting of the principal Merchants, Traders, and other Inhabitants of the Town, this Day, at Liberty-Tree, in Consequence of an Adjournment from the 17th Instant, the Committee of Merchants reported, that Messrs. Joseph and William Russell, and a Number of other Merchants and Importers of British Goods, had freely, under their Hands, agreed to deliver up to the Committee, appointed for that Purpose, all such Goods as might be by them imported in the Snow Tristram, David Shand, Master, (soon expected from England) contrary to the Agreement heretofore entered into by the Merchants, and principal People of the Town, to be stored until the Duty Act on Glass, Paper, &c. be repealed. And as there are some few other Persons in this Town, who as yet refuse to come into the general Agreement, respecting the delivering up and storing of Goods, although they have been duly waited upon, and requested to accede to the same; and this Meeting having Hopes that, on Re-consideration, they will so far consult their own Interest, as well as their Duty to the Public, as to join in the same salutary Measures; it was therefore voted, that the Meeting be adjourned to Tuesday next, the 24th Instant, at two of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Court-House, then and there to advise upon such Measures as shall appear to be expedient, in Conformity to the Conduct of the Merchants of the principal Colonies on the Continent of AMERICA.

OCTOBER 28. At a Town-Meeting held at the Court-House, on Tuesday the 24th Instant, it was resolved, by the Merchants, Traders, and other Inhabitants of this Town, That they would not, directly nor indirectly, from that Time, until the Act imposing Duties upon Glass, Paper, &c. shall be repealed, give any Orders for importing by Land or Water into this Colony, either for Sale, or for their own or Families Use, or purchase of any other Person importing any of the Articles enumerated in an Agreement entered into, and signed by a Number of the Inhabitants of this Town, on the 2d Day of December, 1767, similar to one entered into about the same Time by the Town of Boston; and that they would strictly adhere to the Measures thereby adopted, by endeavouring most effectually to discountenance Luxury and Extravagance, in the Use of British and foreign Manufactures and Superfluities, and by exerting their utmost Endeavours to promote and encourage, by all laudable Methods, our own Manufactures, more especially the Articles of Wool and Flax, the natural Produce and Staple of this Colony.

And whereas several Merchants of this Town have given Orders for, and daily expect from England, in the Snow Tristram, David Shand, Master, divers Parcels of Goods, amongst which are many of the Articles enumerated in the aforementioned Agreement not to be imported; they did then personally, in Presence of the Town-Meeting, chearfully agree and engage to deliver up all such enumerated Articles which they shall import in said Snow, or by any other Way whatever, to a Committee of three Gentlemen appointed by said Meeting for that Purpose, who are to receive and store the same, till the aforesaid Act, imposing Duties, &c. shall be repealed.

Test. JAMES ANGELL, Town-Clerk.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Island) October 30.

The Merchants in this Town had several Meetings last Week, to consult on a Plan for Non-Importation: They appointed a Committee for drawing up an Agreement, &c. and are to meet again this Afternoon; when it is not to be doubted, they will enter into the true American System, with as much Spirit as any others, and observe their Agreement with a Sincerity and Firmness, proportioned to the Deliberation with which they join the general Cause.

We hear the following patriotic Resolution, among many others, was recommended by the Committee, which if consented to, cannot fail of being highly advantageous to the Woollen Manufacture of this Colony.

"That we will not, at any future Election, in this Colony, give our Vote or Suffrage for any Person, who may be a Candidate for an Office, unless he discover his Regard for his oppressed Country, by encouraging its Manufactures, signing this Agreement, and appearing, upon the Day of Election, principally cloathed in the Manufactures of this or some other American Colony."

NOVEMBER 6. Last Monday in the Afternoon the Merchants, and others, of this Town, met at the Court-House, and entered into a very spirited and constitutional Agreement of Non-Importation, to continue from that Day till the late Act imposing Duties on Paper, Glass, &c. shall be repealed. One Copy of this Agreement is signed by 47 of the principal Merchants and Traders in this Town, and we suppose other Copies have met with similar Success: So that, were we to form a Judgment from the Unanimity with which this Agreement was entered into, voluntarily; and the great Pains taken, and Threats of compulsory Methods used, to effect a general Subscription in other Colonies; we might certainly conclude, that the People in this Town have entered the Non-Importation Plan with more Freedom, and genuine Spirit of Liberty, and also more universally, than those of some other Parts, who make much higher Boasts of Patriotism, and endeavour to stigmatize this Place, as not having a proper Sense of the Liberties of America, and of the horrid Tyranny with which this Colony is threatened!

There is a commodious dwelling houſe thereon, containing ſix large rooms, beſides garrets, lathed and plaſtered, with a piazza, to the ſouthward, 64 feet long, and 10 feet wide, and another to the eaſtward, the ſame width, and 44 feet long; which has been lately new ſhingled, and compleatly repaired, and painted; and a kitchen and overſeer's houſe, united under one roof, juſt erected, at a conſiderable expence: alſo a plain, but profitable garden: and the buildings are placed in an airy, pleaſant, and healthy ſituation, on the ſummit of a hill, from whence the proſpect, up and down Aſhley-River, is both agreeable and extenſive.

The advantages to be derived from the employment of a few hands, on the above plantation, to attend and ſupply the Charles-Town market, are obvious; and thoſe advantages may be greatly improved, as there is a landing belonging thereto, adjacent to the houſe, and acceſſible to a boat of 80 barrels; whereby an opportunity will be afforded, to the planter, of a ready communication, by water, with his plantation more remote, and facilitate the conveyance of ſtock, &c. from one, to the other: and alſo another landing, and an eminence, on the ſouth-weſt end of the tract, fronting the river, which, with the particular ſituation of the wood and cleared land, render the above plantation capable of diviſion, into two equal parts.

The purchaſer or purchaſers of any part of the premiſes, to the amount of 100l. and upwards, may have one, two, or more years credit, paying intereſt, and giving approved ſecurity, if required: and if under 1000l. yet exceeding 100l. credit will be given to the firſt of March next, paying intereſt, and giving ſecurity, as above: but for all ſums under 100l. or to that amount, the caſh will be required: and until theſe conditions are complied with and fulfilled, the property of nothing is to be altered.
